Proposal 2 – Ratification of Appointment of Independent Auditors

Ratified the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Corporation's independent auditors for the year ended December 31, 2014. There were 283,762,999 votes for the appointment, 3,907,042 votes against the appointment, and 2,208,914 abstentions.

Proposal 3 – Advisory Vote to Approve the Compensation of our Named Executive Officers (“Say-on-Pay”)

Approved, on an advisory basis (non-binding), the compensation of the Corporation's named executive officers as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and the accompanying tables in our 2014 proxy statement. There were 245,717,534 votes for the proposal, 16,720,636 votes against the proposal, 4,436,496 abstentions, and 23,004,355 broker non-votes.

Proposal 4 – Management Proposal to Amend the Corporation's Amended and Restated 2011 Incentive Performance Award Plan to Authorize and Reserve 4,000,000 Additional Shares

Approved a proposal by management to authorize and reserve an additional 4,000,000 shares for use in the Corporation's Amended and Restated 2011 Incentive Performance Award Plan (the “2011 IPA Plan”). The 2011 IPA Plan is a stockholder approved incentive compensation plan which authorizes an independent committee of the Board to award stock options, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights, stock units and cash-based performance awards to key employees for the purpose of attracting, motivating, retaining and rewarding talented and experienced employees. There were 244,010,538 votes for the proposal, 18,965,359 votes against the proposal, 3,898,248 abstentions and 23,004,355 broker non-votes.

Proposal 5 – Stockholder Proposal by John Chevedden

Rejected a stockholder proposal requesting that the Board of Directors undertake such steps as are necessary to permit action by written consent by stockholders entitled to cast the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize the action at a meeting at which all the stockholders entitled to vote thereon were present and voting. There were 103,256,264 votes for the proposal, 158,741,463 votes against the proposal, 4,874,490 abstentions and 23,004,355 broker non-votes.

Proposal 6 – Stockholder Proposal by the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations Reserve Fund

Rejected a stockholder proposal requesting that the Board of Directors adopt a policy requiring that the Corporation's senior executives retain at least 75% (net after-tax) of any shares acquired by such executives under the Corporation's equity compensation programs until reaching normal retirement age. There were 56,614,257 votes for the proposal, 206,098,045 votes against the proposal, 4,160,716 abstentions and 23,004,355 broker non-votes.

Proposal 7 – Stockholder Proposal by the City of New York Pension Funds

The Comptroller of the City of New York, as the custodian and trustee of the New York City Employees' Retirement System, the New York City Fire Department Pension Fund, the New York City Teachers' Retirement System, and the New York City Police Pension Fund, and custodian of the New York City Board of Education Retirement System requesting that the Board of Directors amend Lockheed's Clawback Policy for Executive Incentive Compensation to provide that the Board's Management Development and Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is to (a) review, and determine whether to seek recoupment of, incentive compensation paid, granted or awarded to a senior executive if, in the Committee's judgment, (i) there has been misconduct resulting in a violation of law or Lockheed policy that causes significant financial or reputational harm to Lockheed and (ii) the senior executive either committed the misconduct or failed in his or her responsibility to manage or monitor conduct or risks; and (b) disclose to shareholders the circumstances of any recoupment. On April 14, 2014 the Comptroller of the City of New York sent Lockheed Martin a letter stating that the Comptroller was withdrawing the proposal. No representative of the Comptroller of the City of New York appeared at the Annual Meeting and the proposal was not presented.
