

LOCKHEED MARTIN AND TITAN ANNOUNCE DELAY OF TITAN
STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING

BETHESDA, MD and SAN DIEGO, CA—March 12, 2004—Lockheed Martin Corporation (NYSE: LMT) and The Titan Corporation (NYSE: TTN) announced today that Titan has agreed to delay until Monday, April 12, 2004, the vote of its stockholders on the pending merger with Lockheed Martin in order to continue the previously announced review of payments involving Titan's international consultants and the related government investigations. Titan intends to convene the meeting as scheduled at 9:30 a.m., Pacific time, on March 16, 2004 solely for the purpose of adjourning the meeting until April 12, 2004. The exact time and place of the adjourned special meeting, as well as additional information related to revised election deadlines, will be included in an amended notice of meeting and supplemental proxy materials that will be mailed to Titan stockholders as soon as they are available.

Lockheed Martin and Titan also announced that they have agreed to amend the merger agreement to extend the date by which either party may terminate the agreement if the merger has not been completed from March 31, 2004 to April 20, 2004, provided that the party seeking to terminate the agreement is not then in material breach of its obligations in a manner that has contributed to the failure to complete the merger by such date. The remaining terms of the merger agreement remain unchanged.

Headquartered in Bethesda, Md., Lockheed Martin employs about 130,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture and integration of advanced technology systems, products and services. The corporation reported 2003 sales of $31.8 billion.

Headquartered in San Diego, The Titan Corporation is a leading provider of comprehensive information and communications systems solutions and services to the Department of Defense, intelligence agencies, and other federal government customers. As a provider of national security solutions, the company has approximately 12,000 employees and annualized sales of approximately $2.0 billion.

Additional Information About the Merger and Where to Find It

Lockheed Martin and Titan have filed a proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials with the SEC in connection with the proposed acquisition of Titan by Lockheed Martin.
